PLAYFUL : CHILDREN WITH DOLLS

April 22 (Wed)–June 14 (Sun)

47days

We take a look at dolls and doll-related toys—mainly modern European dolls, with a focus on German and Swiss. We start with cloth dolls that are soft to touch, and eventually come to huggable dolls which were originally made for dollmakers' own children and then spread to the world. Also exhibited are dollhouses, finger puppets, marionettes and more. We introduce dolls as children's friends, with whom children connect play and life, and we can feel the rapport children developed with dolls.

TSUTSUMU : Traditional Japanese Packaging

July 11 (Sat)–August 30 (Sun)

44days

The designer, OKA Hideyuki, left an enormous footprint in the world of "design" together with the word "TSUTSUMU (to wrap)" as he continued to collect and study traditional Japanese packaging in the dawn of "design" in Japan. Through OKA's collection housed in our museum that portrays his look at the Japanese packaging with natural materials such as wood, bamboo, straw, clay and paper, we introduce the feelings Japanese have given to the deed of "TSUTSUMU" and the beauty of packaging techniques.

"Ku-Ten" (Works of Meguro City Citizens)

September 16 (Wed)–September 27 (Sun)

11days

We exhibit the works by citizens of Meguro City; paintings, calligraphy, handicrafts and photography. This exhibition is organized by the City Exhibition Committee. (Cooperation by MMAT)

MMAT Collection

October 24 (Sat)–November 29 (Sun)

32days

The Olympic and Paralympic Games will be held in Tokyo this year, and the city will attract worldwide attention. On this occasion, we focus on TOKYO as well as MEGURO where our museum is located, shedding light on the Meguro-related artists and works, including the designer AKIOKA Yoshio who lived in Meguro, approaching the 100th anniversary of his birth.

Meguro Children's Exhibition

January 16 (Sat)–31 (Sun), 2021

14days

We display works by children and students in kindergartens, elementary, and junior high schools, in Meguro; works of tours de force of the children, including craftwork, artwork, calligraphy and others worked on in class. You can feel the richly expressed emotions and ideas, and they convey the creative urges and surprises found through the honest eyes of children. In addition, we will also exhibit works of the children in Cherokee County, Georgia, USA, and Dongcheng District, Beijing, China.

Modern Art Collection of the MAEDA Family

February 13 (Sat) – March 21 (Sun), 2021

32days

We will introduce modern works of art from the collection of MAEDA Toshinari, the 16th head and marquis of the MAEDA clan. The relationship between Meguro and the MAEDA family dates back to the early Showa period, when the family moved residence to Komaba, Meguro-ku. Based on this, Meguro and Kanazawa concluded the friendship city agreement in 2017. With the cooperation of Maeda Ikutokukai, the exhibition will present a part of their precious collection, including works unveiled for the first time in Tokyo.

Artists with Disabilities in Meguro "Daily Joy 2020"

November 10 (Tue)–29 (Sun)

18days

The Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games will be held this year. Continuing from last year, we are holding the "Daily Joy" exhibition – exhibition of the works by people with disabilities living in Meguro, with a focus on care facilities in Meguro City. This time, the exhibition will be held in the MMAT main building, during the exhibition period of the MMAT Collection.
